

Why I Love To Read

By Tiffany Buchholz

I love to read because I go into my own little world where nothing else matters until it is midnight and I can hardly keep my eyes open.

I love to read because you become that person or thing you are reading about. I love the adventure, the thrill, the keep-you-on-the-edge-of-your-seat feeling you get when you read; you don't want to put the book down until you have gotten to the end. I love books that are inspirational, that make you want to get up and do something. It is always nice to have a good book that will make you laugh so hard that you have to run to the bathroom before you pee your pants. The main reasons that I love to read is for the enjoyment and for the chance to experience something new.
